

DEPENDENCY BENEFITS ELUCIDATED

Wives and children of nisei soldiers, as well as parents, brothers, and sisters living in relocation centers, are eligible for servicemen's dependency benefits, it was announced by Project Director E.R. Whitaker.

According to advice received from the Office of Dependency Benefits of the War Department, the families of Japanese American soldiers may apply for all dependency benefits provided for under the Servicemen's Dependency Allowance Act of 1942.

If the recipients of such benefits reside in Relocation centers, no deductions from allowances will be made for subsistence provided by JRA.

Class A dependents, which include wives and children, are eligible for allotments on the basis of dependency and not on actual need. Only proof of marital or parental relationship will be required.

Class B dependents, which include parents, grandparents, brothers, and sisters, may receive allotments only in cases

EASTER EGG-HUNT TOMORROW

In appreciation of the hospitality shown them by the two Arkansas Relocation Centers, members of the 442nd Combat Team of Camp Shelby and their godfather, Earl E. Finch of Hattiesburg, Mississippi have donated 10,000 eggs--5,000 to Jerome and 5,000 to Rohwer--dye, candies and other items.

With the arrival here of the 5,000 eggs, a Center-wide egg-hunt will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. in the open space in Blocks 10 and 22.

Participants in the egg-hunt will be limited to children between the ages of 3 and 12. They are asked to assemble in the Block 10 field where instructions will be given by Mr. Finch.

Following the egg-ticket hunt, distribution of real dyed eggs and prizes and a program will be held in Hall 23 for the participants.

Moreover, boiled eggs and candies will be distributed to all children under 12 years in each block either on Saturday or Sunday at the convenience of the respective mess halls.

Return of Personal Items

Arrangements are being made for the return of personal property taken by representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from various aliens of enemy nationality for evidentiary purposes in connection with the Alien Enemy Control program, according to the letter sent to R. Director Dillon S. Tyer by FBI Director John Edgar Hoover on February 23.

In order to avoid the possible contravention of any rules or regulations promulgated by your Agency, it is pro-

U.S. CITIZENS ELIGIBLE FOR FSA LOANS

American citizen evacuees who relocate are eligible for Farm Security Administration loans on the same basis as other American citizens, according to a recent announcement from the Washington office of FSA.

FSA spokesmen have advised "RA that farm loans are made to citizen relocators in accordance with FSA policies for aiding persons in carrying out their own rehabilitation and in increasing production of the nation's food supply.

Loans to American citizens of any ancestry are made only after eligibility to receive a loan has been established by a County committee.

Among the requirements to be met are verification of an applicant's character, loyalty, and integrity.

In cases where these qualifications are confirmed, the county committee may recommend that loans be granted.

If an applicant's loyalty to the United States is questionable, the Committee may make further in-
